

Same Vibration

The music, the rhythms, the celebration

When Same Vibration takes the stage, audiences are not just entertained—they're empowered and inspired. This international ensemble, based in Copenhagen, delivers positive, conscious messages wrapped in driving rhythms that resonate deeply with listeners. Described as “a cross between American Jam Bands and World Music,” Same Vibration has been electrifying audiences at iconic venues like Loppen, Global, and Huset, as well as at festivals across Denmark and beyond.

Formed in the fall of 2008 by lead singer and songwriter Didi Levy (IL), Same Vibration is a melting pot of global sounds. Each member brings a unique cultural influence, creating a rich tapestry of musical diversity. Their performances are a vibrant blend of styles, with each song exploring different genres and traditions.

Live shows by Same Vibration are a dynamic experience, reminiscent of American Jam Bands like Phish and the Grateful Dead. With a heavy dose of improvisation and freedom, no two performances are the same. Audiences are taken on a captivating journey through various cultures and rhythms, with each show featuring a unique setlist, special guests, and musical surprises. The lyrics, primarily in English, also include Spanish and Hebrew, adding to the band's multicultural appeal.

Since breaking onto the international scene in 2011, Same Vibration has toured the UK and Israel, spreading their infectious energy far and wide.

The band's:

- Didi Levy: Guitar and vocals
- Rachel Yatzkan: Sax, clarinet, flutes, and vocals
